

Please do not weaken the No Call List in any way. It is blissfully quiet during the evening. Our family life is not interrupted by phone solicitors calling and lying to us that we asked for information, or trying to sell us something. Phone solicitation is an invasion of my privacy and the No Call list has been a fantastic relief. Do not weaken it even one bit.